A REMARKABLE SCENE.

In Which Ex-Gov. Proctor Knott Once Figured.

Ex-Gov. Proctor Knott, of Kentucky, recently told of a remarkable scene that he once witnessed. He said:

It was a remarkable scene. It occurred during my early manhood when I was Attorney General of Missouri. Robert Howard, was then Governor of that State. One day I was in his private office when he persued a steamboatman for some crime. What it was I have forgotten but that does not matter. The man had been brought from the penitentiary to the Governor's office. He was a large, powerful fellow, with the rough manners of his class.

The Governor looked at the steamboatman and seemed strangely affected. He scrutinized him long and closely. Finally he signed the document that restored him to liberty, but before he handed it to him, said:
"You will commit some other crime and be in the penitentiary again. I fear." The man promised that he would not. The Governor looked doubtful, mused a few moments, and
said:

"You will go back on the river and be a mate again, I suppose?"
The man replied that he would.
"Well, I want you to promise me one thing," resumed the Governor.
"I want you to pledge your word that when you are a mate again you will not take a billet of wood in your hand and drive a sick boy out of a bunk to help you load your boat on a stormy night." The steamboatman said that he would not, and he inquired what the Governor meant by asking him such a question.

The Governor replied: Because some day that boy may become a Governor and you may want him to pardon you for a crime. One dark, stormy night many years ago you stopped your boat on the Mississippi to take on a load of wood. There was a boy on board who was working his passage from New Orleans to St. Louis, but he was very sick of a fever and was lying in a bunk. You had plenty of men to do the work, but you went to that boy with a stick of wood in your hand and drove him with blows and curses out into the wretched night and kept him toiling like a slave until the load was completed. I was that boy. Here is your pardon. Never again be guilty of such brutality. And the man, cowarding and hiding his face, went out.
As I never heard of the man again, I suppose he took care not to break the law."

TOBACCO NEWS.

LOUISVILLE TOBACCO MARKET.
Furnished by GUY & DUBART.

Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 3029 hhds. with receipts for the same period of 1916 hhds. Sales on our market since January 1st amount to 106524 hhds.
Sales of the crop of 1888, on our market to date 75407 hhds.

The offerings of dark tobacco this week have been larger than usual and the market has exhibited some peculiar features. For a portion of the week better prices were realized for dark tobacco than have been current for the past 60 days, but the market has been irregular and dull with heavy rejections. The following quotations fairly represent our market for dark tobacco:

Trash 75c to $1.25.
Common to Medium Leaf $1.50 to 2.00.
Dark Large extra quality $2.00 to 3.00.
Common Leaf $4.50 to 4.50.
Medium to Good Leaf $4.50 to 5.50.
Good Leaf Extra length $5.50 to 6.50.
Rich Wrappery tobacco $6.50 to 10.00.

Austin, Tex.; August 24th, 1887.

This is to certify that my son Fred has been troubled with catarrh the past two years, and after using William H. Rorer's Microbe Killer three weeks, I think he is entirely cured. I can see no bad effects of it upon my son. J. C. FETTERLY.

For sale, by Buckner Leavell, sole agent Christian county.

Malarial Fever is caused by Microbes. The germs are in the air you breathe. Taken Rorer's Microbe Killer and that will kill the germ, you cannot have an ache or pain. For sale by Buckner Leavell, sole agent Christian county.

Are you sick? If so you can be restored to perfect health if you use Rorer's Microbe Killer. It purifies the blood thoroughly, and when that is done you are a well man. The success of the medicine is simply wonderful. For sale by Buckner

Mary's Diminutive Sheep.

Mary possessed a diminutive sheep, Whose external covering was as devoted of color as the congealed aqueous humors which occasionally prevents insurmountable barriers to railroad travel on the Sierra.
And every where that Mary peregrinated, The juvenile Southdown was certain to get up to the alphabet dispensary one day.

Which was in contravention of established usage;
It caused the other youthful students to exclaim and skylark.
To perceive an adolescent mutton in a class devoted to the dissemination of knowledge.

And so the proprietor ejected him from the interior.
But he continued to roam around in the immediate vicinity, And remained very composedly in the neighborhood where he became visible.

"What causes the juvenile steep to barker after Mary?"
Queried the inquisitive children of the tutor.

"Why Mary bestows much affection upon the little animal, to which the wind is tempered when she you should be aware."

This preceptor with elasticity responded.

KENTUCKY PROGRESS.

Brandenburg—The Brandenburg Manufacturing Co., reported last week, will commence laying pipe for supplying town with gas about October 1.

Central City—The water works previously reported as to be built by the Central City Water Co. will cost $10,000. The Central City and Iron Co. will do the work. Two miles of from 5 to 8-inch pipe will be laid.

Cloverport—The Louisville St.
Louis & Texas Railroad Co. (office Louisville) will rebuild their machine shops recently burned at Cloverport.
The citizens raised a bonus of $30,000 to secure the shops.

Covington—The contract for completing the reservoir for the water works has been let to D. Shanahan & Co., of Louisville, and to N. J. Harlow, of Pittsburgh, Pa., as stated last week.

Covington—The Colorado Coal, Iron & Land Co. has been incorporated by T. P. Collins, J. A. Robinson and Alexander Montgomery. The capital stock is $100,000.

Georgetown—The city is considering the erection of an electric-light plant. The mayor can give information.

Glasgow—J. R. Padgog is erecting a wood-working shop.

Glasgow—S. H. Waller & Co. have erected an apple brandy distillery.

Grand Rivers—It is reported that a syndicate have raised $150,000 to purchase $10,000 acres of mineral lands.

Lexington—The Lexington City Railway Co., will erect an electric plant to operate their street railway by electricity, as previously reported.

Lily—An Indiana company will open a coal mine.

Lily—The Lily Mining & Manufacturing Co. have opened a coal mine.

Louisville—The iron and steel bridge to be built across the Ohio river, mentioned in last issue, will be with approach 9,000 feet long, and will have railroad, foot and wagon ways. The total cost including terminal facilities, is estimated at $2,000,000.

Philadelphia, Pa., have the contract.
Louisville—The Louisville Saw Mill Co., reported last week, will operate the saw mills formerly operated by the Astoria Veneer Mill & Lumber Co.

Louisville—M. J. Bannon has been awarded the contract to build part of the sewerage system previously reported, and J. R. Gleason contract for a sewer on Walnut street from Fourth to Fifth.

Normal—The Keys Creek Lumber Co. have purchased all the poplar trees on 72,000 acres of land along Beaver creek from McKay & Lanahan and the Bank of Commerce, of Pittsburgh, Pa., and will cut same.

Complete and Permanent.

In the early part of last year I had a violent attack of rheumatism, from which I was confined to my bed for over three months, and at times was unable to turn myself in bed, or even raise the cover. A nurse had to be in constant attendance day and night. I was so feeble that what little nourishment I took had to be given me with a spoon. I was in constant agony, and sleep was entirely out of the question except when I was under the influence of opiates.
After calling in the best local physicians, and trying all other medicines without receiving any benefit, I was induced by friends to try S. S. S., and specific (S. S. S.). I discontinued all other medicines, and took a course of S. S. S.—thirteen small bottles—which effected a complete and permanent cure. L. C. BASSETT, El Dorado, Kansas.

An Ending Sore.

Mr. C. B. McLenore, a prominent and influential citizen of Henderson, Texas, writes under date of August 23, 1889, as follows:

"For eighteen months I had an eating sore on my tongue. I was treated by the best local physicians, but obtained no relief, the sore gradually growing worse. I concluded, finally to try S. S. S., and was entirely cured after using a few bottles.
You have my heartfelt permission to publish the above statement for the benefit of those similarly afflicted." C. B. McLENORE, Henderson,

A MUTE FISHERWOMAN.

Nantuxet's Dead and Dumb Skipper and A dumb woman is one of the best fishermen on the island, owning and managing a small schooner, of which she is the captain, and with the assistance of a huge black Newfoundland dog and a gray kitten, crew. She knows all the best feeding grounds and is almost the only Vineyarder who has had good luck with her lobster pots this summer. She lives alone onboard her schooner and seldom sets foot ashore. They say her husband was a young woman when she was shipped as a cook on a whaler and she returned home. She is not a Vineyarder born and bred, but comes from somewhere down the coast of Maine.

The morning I saw her first she was pulling a dory toward the beach in search of salt pork and codfish at the country store. Her skin was tanned by exposure to the weather, and the coll of dark hair at the back of her neck was the only indication of her sex visible, rough fishermen's boots and trousers forming part of her apparel. Her eyes were bright, and her face not wholly unattractive.

The cabin of her boat is a marvel of disorder, stowed with miscellaneous odds and ends of buttons and thread and shoe laces and peddlers' knickknacks, which in the intervals of fishing she sometimes drives a trade in with scattered coast families. She is faithful at least to one feminine instinct, turning half the days of the week into wash days and keeping her garments in various stages of dispi-tation flying from clothes-lines on schooner board continually. She is said to mink, as seasons go, an excellent living, and the fishermen mix a little superstition with their feeling toward her, looking upon a hit uncharitably as they hear across the water the native, inarticulate sounds which they know come from the mute fisherwoman scolding the kitten or informing the dog that it is time to up sail.

Wa-aniled out past No Man's Land with our strange skipper and returned convinced that it is not impossible for a woman to be a sea captain. She is pinching a quilt of crazy patchwork for her bunk at odd times when the tide does not serve—Nantuxet Cor. Boston Transcript.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1889.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Miss Lela Watkins is in the city for the fair.
Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Jarrett visited Paducah last week.
Miss Carrie McGowan returned to Louisville yesterday.
Mrs. N. P. Stevenson is visiting relatives in Princeton.
Mr. Thomas Armstrong is at home on a visit to his parents.
Miss Ella Pratt, of Madisonville, returned home yesterday.
Mrs. M. C. Vickers is spending a few days in Madisonville.
Mr. Buckner Lavelle is up from a ten-days' spell of sickness.
Mrs. W. B. Lander returned yesterday from a visit to Treanton.
Mr. C. K. Kennedy is now behind the counter at J. H. Anderson & Co's.
Miss Virginia Trigg, of New Harmony, Ind., is visiting Miss Lena Grissam.
Mr. Geo. Herndon, of Logan county, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. E. C. Phelps.
Judge J. W. McPherson and bride arrived from Louisiana Saturday night.

Mrs. D. F. Smithson and Miss Annie Jones, the latter of Pembroke, have returned from Louisville.
John Savage has gone to Mt. Vernon, Ill., to accept a position with the L. & N. as night clerk in the depot office.
Miss Annie S. Markham, of Tennessee, who has been visiting friends here for ten days, left for Princeton yesterday.
Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Rea, of Des Moines, Ia., who have been visiting their son, Mr. C. W. Rea, for ten days, returned home yesterday.
Mr. C. M. Williamson, of Alliance, Ohio, who has been visiting his brother, Mr. W. T. Williamson, returned home yesterday.

ALL READY.

The Outlook for a Successful Fair Very Fine.
Fine Weather and Big Crowds Promised.

Everything is in readiness for the fair and the city is already attracting many visitors. The weather is delightful and if it continues so a tremendous crowd may be expected during the week.
The balloon ascension at one o'clock to-morrow with a parachute descent is something entirely new. It will draw a large crowd. It will be remembered that an increase of 10 cents will be added to the regular admission fee on this account to-morrow. The aeronaut, Prof. Haydon, will descend in his parachute from an altitude of a mile or more.
The races promise to be the best ever seen here. Among the horses men who already have stables on the grounds are Smith & Estes, Uniontown; Robt. Dixon, Henderson; Phil McCauley, Lafayetteville; H. D. Bailey, Owensboro; J. Hardy, Owensboro; J. N. Danby & Bro., Frankfort; Sam Fleming, Terre Haute, Ind.; Geo. Steele, Henderson; Alex. Oldham, and J. W. Thomas, Nashville.
About 30 horses are now here and fully 50 will be on hand.
The first day's program includes the exhibit of Christian county horses and mules, of all kinds; the merchants stake for 2-year-old trotters, 8 entries; the novelty running race of one mile and the 2:45 trot for a $200 purse.

An Explanatory Card.

EDITOR KENTUCKIAN:—Permit me to say through your paper that on the 27th of last month I was injured by a vicious horse, which for ten days rendered me unable to turn over in my bed. I have suffered intense bodily pain, am still suffering, having to this date no use whatever of my left arm. This affliction will render it necessary for me to call in (at least for the present) several engagements which I had for revival meetings. This I hope will be a sufficient explanation. I desire also to render my sincere thanks to those kind friends who promptly visited me in my affliction and to others who wrote me words of comfort, offering their sympathies and their prayers. In this world of affliction and suffering, when the dark clouds gather over us, to know that there are generous hearts in whose sympathies we share very much lightens the burden of our souls. Next to the approving smiles of my Heavenly Father, do I appreciate the confidence and Christian love of the virtuous and the good.
A. W. MEACHAM.

Mrs. Harvey Moore, mother of Mr. Walter Moore, of Memphis, died in Memphis yesterday morning. Her remains will arrive here to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock, and will be interred in the city cemetery.
Alvina Disguld, aged 84 years, died in the city Saturday of old age.

CREAM OF NEWS.

Shooting in Todd County.

A shooting affray occurred near Allegree, Todd county, Saturday evening, between Jim and Tom Rager on one side and Locke Powell on the other.
About a year ago Tom Rager eloped with Powell's 15-year-old daughter. Powell was violently opposed to the match but finally took the couple and set them up to house-keeping on a part of his farm. Recently Rager sold out his wife's furniture and sent her with a young baby to her father's. This brought on bad feelings and a few days ago Powell, who owns a mill, refused to grind some corn for Mari Rager, his son-in-law's uncle. Saturday Jim Rager, Mari's son, and Tom Rager went to Powell's house armed with guns. They found Powell some distance from the house and opened fire on him. Powell's son, a mere boy, saw his father in trouble and ran with a gun and pistol, with which the elder Powell returned fire. The brave boy was shot in the calf of the leg and had an artery cut and was reported in a critical condition yesterday. Mrs. Powell also ran to her husband during the fight and it is said one or more shots were fired at her. Powell thinks he hit one of the Ragers. Both of them retreated and have disappeared.

A Heavy Damage Suit.

Wm. Creek, through his attorneys, Breathitt & Johnson, has brought suit against Saunty Putnam, in the Common Pleas court, for $5,000 damages. The petition alleges that Putnam has been slandered by Creek's wife, a young woman to whom he was married about a year ago. That her character has been assailed and her chastity questioned in public in the vilest and most insulting language. The parties to the suit are both young men who live in the extreme north end of the county. The case promises to be sensational and will doubtless prove interesting to those who delight in seeing scandals exposed in court. Mr. Putnam has not engaged counsel yet, as the suit was only brought on last Saturday.

The Munford Murder Case.

The trial of Garrett Munford and five other negroes for the murder of Pike Redford, col., was begun yesterday before Justice Tinsley. The trial will probably occupy three or four days, as a large number of witnesses have been summoned. The defendants are represented by attorneys Bell, Forgy and Wood and Col. Brown is assisting the county attorney in the prosecution. Munford, the real murderer, has made a confession and it is doubtful whether the others were concerned in the crime. The trial is drawing large crowds, especially of colored people.

Pining For Liberty.

Quint Tyler, in for 10 months, Ike Griffin, 6 months, and Henry Weston, one year, the three workhouse prisoners, made an attempt to break jail Saturday night. They were in the lower back cell, which is not lined with iron, and when discovered by Jailer Long had cut a hole six inches deep in the brick wall. Their tools were taken from them and their little scheme slipped in the bud. They had a hammer about 8 inches long, an old rasp, a mason's iron "point," a chisel and a steel blade or punch. Where they procured these instruments is still a mystery.
Another Barn Burned.
Eq. W. E. Wardell lost a barn by fire some time ago. We failed to catch the item at the time, in a rush of other more important news. The barn contained 8,000 or 9,000 pounds of tobacco belonging to Walter Warfield, Jr., and some share hands.

MATRIMONIAL.

Mr. Walter Elgin, of the drug firm of Rogers & Elgin, and Miss Daisy Anderson, daughter of Mr. H. M. Anderson, will be married on the 23rd inst. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. J. O. Rust.

ELLIOTT-COOPER.

One of the most notable marriages in Lafayette society for a long time occurred yesterday. The contracting parties were Mr. Quint A. Elliott and Miss Emma Cooper. They represent two of the best families in South Christian and are both great favorites in Lafayette society circles. Mr. Elliott is a young gentleman of high character, handsome, popular and universally esteemed. His bride is one of the most captivating belles of a section of the country where pretty girls abound. She is a sister of Mr. R. E. Cooper, the warehouseman, and has frequently visited in this city. The ceremony was performed at the bride's home last evening, by Rev. Mr. Stubbledick.

On Tuesday last the Rev. Gorman of Princeton, in his beautiful and impressive manner, united the hearts and lives of two of Canton's most popular young people. The happy pair being Dr. J. C. Taylor and Miss Emma Lea Henson. The only attendants were Miss Lizette Killebrew and Will D. Taylor.—Clarkeville Progress.
